Come Sell at County's Biggest Yard Sale

Support the library and make a tidy profit!

Want to have a giant yard sale without all the work? The Georgetown Friends of the Library invite sellers to buy a space at the county's biggest yard sale. This year's Friends Community Yard Sale will be held on Saturday, April 26th, from 8 – noon at the Judicial Center Parking Lot on Cleland Street.

The parking lot is just behind the Georgetown Library, and last autumn, it was chock full of great deals and busy buyers and sellers. Buyers get into the sale for free and sellers pay just $15 for a space.

"You just come sell your items and we do the advertising and provide the space," said library assistant director and sale organizer Trudy Bazemore. "You keep all the proceeds from your sale."

The event is also a great chance to see friends, listen to great live music from Joey Carter and the Coastal Reaction Band, and meet the smiling members of the Friends of the Library.

If you would like a sale space, you must sign up at the Georgetown Library before the event. The library is open Monday through Thursday, 8:30 am – 7 pm, and Friday and Saturday, 8:30 am – 5:30 pm.
